VOL. 14, NUMBER 111 MONESSEN, PA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

The fall season is here. This country has arranged to loan $500,000,000 to Great Britain and France. Are you still croaking hard times? Maybe a little judgment and business push would help you.

Fifty Cases Of Measles Reported This Month

Monessen is threatened with an epidemic of measles, 50 cases having been reported to the Board of Health within the last three weeks. This is the largest number of cases of this disease reported since the epidemic of three years ago when over 300 cases were reported within a short time. Last month but nine cases were reported while but 19 cases were reported during all year. The majority of the cases have been discovered in the Third ward and practically all of them among foreign children.

Every precaution is being taken by the Board of Health in keeping the disease from spreading and the health officials are being ably assisted by the local public school nurse, who in many cases has found the children attending school with the rash, which later develops in measles. Parents also refuse to report cases to the proper officials, and it is only through the nurse reporting pupils absent from school that some of the cases are discovered.

Last month seventeen cases of diphtheria were reported to the Board of Health and so far this month eight new cases have developed. The first case of typhoid fever since August was reported to the health officials this morning.

The measles epidemic is periodical here, as it seems when the children become of a certain age they are effected and after that become immune. Very few if any deaths have been reported from this cause and with proper treatment by the parents, the victime are soon on a fair road to recovery.

Championship Bout

The biggest boxing show ever given in Charleroi, a show that may have a bearing upon the future lightweight championship of the country, will be held at the Charleroi skating rink Saturday night under the auspices of the Monongahela Valley Athletic club. The main bout will be between Johnny Ray of Pittsburgh versus Battling Schultz of Monessen. Ray a short time ago defeated Patsy Branigan, erstwhile champion in a battle at Pittsburgh, giving him right of claim to the title. Battling Schultz is a fighter who looks good to local boxing fans, so they anticipate the warmest kind of a go Saturday night. There will be other events of interest in the preliminary battles. The show will start at 9 o'clock.

In the opening bout, Kid Cooper of this city will try and stop Young Jones, also a Monessen product, who has been going like a house afire defeating all comers. The two boys have an old grudge to settle and the bout promises some real sport. Fully five hundred fans are expected to attend from this city.

Killed By Auto

Thomas E. Wible, Jr., aged 22 of Greensburg, was killed and William Smith, aged 53, general superintendent of the L. E. Smith Glass company of Mt. Pleasant, is in the Memorial hospital, Mt. Pleasant, very severely bruised as the result of an automobile accident last evening.

Mr. Smith was ill and Mr. Wible was taking him to a physician. The engine stalled at a curve near the Standard works of the H. C. Frick Coke compny and in attempting to start the car, Wible released the brakes and the heavy machine backed over a 15-foot embankment, falling between rows of coke ovens. Mr. Wible was pinned beneath the wreckage. Mr. Smith who was thrown clear of the car, was sent to the hospital by workmen.

Mr. Wible leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wible. three brothers and three sisters.

Consented To Wedding

Christian Liebrum, aged 65, who has been in the county jail nearly two years, for contempt of court, rather than obey an order of Judge Joseph M. Swearingen to remove his home from a roadway in Versailles township, was called on yesterday afternoon to give his consent to the marriage of his ward, Mary L. Ford, aged 20, of Monessen.

His ward in company with Culmer L. Anderson, aged 24, weighmaster at the mines in Harwick. called at the jail and requested permission to see Liebrum. The jail attendants at first refused to admit the bridegroom-to-be, saying the prisoner's ward was the only person that could be admitted. When the young man explained the circumstances of their visit,, Warden Edward Lewis immediately granted the permission.

When Miss Ford asked Liebrum for consent to the marriage, the latter willingly granted it. After a notary was called in, Liebrum made affidavit in which he set forth that he was the guardian of Miss Ford and consented to the marriage.

Important Arrest By Local Officers This Morning

Tony Long, proprietor of a pool room on Donner avenue between Third and Fourth streets, was arrested this morning by Chief of Police Wheatley on a charge of larceny. The information was made in Pittsburgh and it is expected that a detective from that city will be here this afternoon to prefer charges against the prisoner.

Chief Wheatley received word this morning that the man was wanted by the Pittsburgh authorities and he placed him under arrest at once. When searched at the police station, the prisoner had on his person a huge roll of bills amounting to $231.

The prisoner refused to comment on his arrest and little is known about the charges. The authorities will probably arrive on the 2:19 train and a preliminary hearing will be given the man at once. The pool room of which he is proprietor is a new place, the room formerly being occupied by a sewing machine company.

Met Yesterday

The Woman's club of Monessen held their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. J. Howard Kelly. There was a good attendance and an interesting program was carried out. "Social and Economic Forces in American History" was taken up and interesting papers were read by Mrs. Daniel Reamer, Mrs. H. E. Gress, Mrs. C. S. Duvall and Miss Jeannette Wilson. Lunch was served by the hostess The next meeting will be held November 3 at the home of Mrs. C. H. Dils of this city at which time Mrs. C. L. Schuck will make her report from the state convention, which is being held this week at Wilkesbarre.

Big Game Saturday

The local High school football team is looking forward to one of their hardest games of the season Saturday when they will meet the Donora team at Page park. The visitors have a fast team and their defeat last Saturdy by the Clifornia Normal team was the first in two seasons. A. J. Martin, aformer W. & J. athlete, is coaching the team and is confident that his proteges will lower the colors of the locals.

Coaches Imler, Townsend and White are putting the boys through a stiff drill this week in preparation for the game and with the tackling dummy erected are bringing the squad down to hard tackling practice. The same lineup will be used as started the Jeannette game last Saturday.

A feature of the contest Saturday will be the cheering of the followers of both team as Donora has promised to send a large delegation of students here and a merry battle will be waged on the side lines between the cheer leaders and their followers. The officials for the game have not as yet been selected but competent men will be secured as it will be the first game for the elimination in the valley championship.

Berkey Boyd Here

Berkey H. Boyd of Scottdale, Republican candidate for County Commissioner, is in town today in the interest of his campaign. Mr. Boyd received the highest vote in the commissioner contest and he will surely win at the November election by a big majority. Mr. Boyd expresses himself in positive terms about the success of the Republican ticket. He says the sentiment is the same all over the county and that any efforts to defeat the ticket as nominated, will result in failure and embarrassment.

Berkey H. Boyd

In the local field, Mr. Boyd found a hearty welcome and assurance on every hand that the voters would support him at the general election. He is certain of loyal support as is also every candidate on the Republican ticket.

Union Meeting

A union meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Rabe in Donora. Monongahela, Belle Vernon, Charleroi, Eldora, Monessen and Donora will be represented. An interesting program has been arranged and several interesting talks will be given. Mrs. J. H. McClusky will tell of "Her Experience in Carrying a Remonstrance" and Mrs. Stone of Eldora will talk on "Why I Should Like to Vote'.'

The program will be in charge of Mrs. Octave Jasqmain of New Eagle and the address of welcome will be made by Mrs. Wm. H. Watson of Donora, the response by Mrs. Luce of Belle Vernon. After the meeting, refreshments will be served by the hostess.

Band Concert

The committee in charge of the band concert to be held in the auditorium of the new High school building, Friday, November 3 is working hard to make the affair a success and with the children of the schools selling tickets, the indications point to a large crowd being in attendance to reward their efforts. The concert will be given by the Louhi band of this city and Director Wahlstrom has arranged a most entertaining program for the occasion, which will include several solo numbers by a well known soloist from Pittsburgh. The entire proceeds of this affair will be used for the public school library fund.

Road Nearly Ready

The Mingo Creek state road will be thrown open to the public in about two weeks, and when this is done, it will give an improved highway from Monongahela to Pittsburgh. The Bell-Blockel Co., who has this contract, is finishing putting on the Warrenite covering , but find considerable difficulty in getting laborers. Today they advertise for twenty men who can find employment at $2.00 per day.

The contractors have some minor details to complete, such as building fences, finishing sewers and repairing the sub-grade along each side of the highway. The company expects to have the road finished in about one month.

Preachers Meet

The third meeting of the Monongahela Valley Ministerial Association, composed of ministers of towns between Riverview and Fayette City inclusive, was held at Belle Vernon Tuesday, when an interesting program was carried out.

Dr. C. E. Keller of the Monessen Lutheran church, president of the association presided. The opening session was held at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Rev. A. H. Davies of the Methodist Episcopal church of Monessen preached the sermon, his theme being "The Triumphant Church." A paper was read by Rev. M. M. Albeck, pastor of the Monongahela Lutheran church. His subject was "The Temperance Outlook and Growth of the Temperance Movement in the United States."

There were about 20 ministers present from Monessen and nearby points. The first meeting of the association was held during this year in Charleroi. The second was at Monessen.

A Peace Call

"A call to arms against war" is the slogan with which Commodore J. Stuart Blackton is heralding his Vitagraph propaganda picture play, "The Battle Cry of Peace." Nineteen screen stars, 25,000 National Guard Troops, 800 members of the Grand Army of the Republic; 5,000 horses, 8,000 supernumaries and Admiral George Dewey, Major General Leonard Wood, Dr Lyman Abott and Hudson Maxim, the inventor, go to make up the cast of characters in this most wonderful of photo plays. "The Battle Cry of Peace" is about the biggest thing yet done by photo-play producers. It is playing simultaneously at the highest prices yet charged for photo-plays, at the Clympic theatre, Chicago; the Vitagraph theatre, New York, and the Majestic theatre, Boston, in all of which cities capacity audiences are registering their interest in the "peace through preparedness" movement. "I came to write 'The Battle Cry of Peace' the author Commodore Blackton says, "through a discussion with Hudson Maxim, whose book 'Defenseless America' has aroused such widespread comment At Mr. Maxim's suggestion I read the book, and was struck so by the strength of his argument that I determined to produce a photo-play based upon it. The idea received an immediate response in the form of endorsements from America's most prominent people, and I fully expect fifty million persons will be made aware of the unpreparedness of their country by seeing the films."

Too Much Law

One of the Chicago papers has hit upon an exposure and reform that ought to be speedily converted into a national crusade. It is entitled "Uselers Driving Us to Lawlessness." It deals with the appalling increase in arrests in American cities, and also rural communities, due to statutes and ordinances that are the result of reform-crazed people

We boast of being a free people, self-governed and all that, yet we make more interference with the liberties of the people than any other country on earth. and we have a record of more arrests and more men who have been compelled to look through the steel bars of jails. And we endure it without protest. Most of the laws under which these appalling arrests are made are the culminations of half-diseased brains, men and women crazy with the idea of making others conform to their standards of morals or even living We see legislature after legislature piling on these useless laws, and most of us have become so cowardly that we are afraid to protest—some for fear of being called unprogressive if we do not fall into line with each new theory of the social reformers.

Those who by reason of balanced brains ought to be influential at the polls are apathetic, disgusted with the whole "game" or merely cowardly—and often they do not want their money making processes interfered with—and so it is that we have our statutes clogged with laws that do not represent public sentiment or opinion, laws that make criminals of thousands of Americans and put on the stain of arrest and imprisonmet.

San Francisco, Cal—"My, how cute," was the expression of a society girl who motored down to see the "oldest tree," which celebrated its three thousand one hundred and fiftieth birthday recently. A family of five could have picnicked under the tree when the Greeks were building their wooden horse under the walls of Troy, and Pharoh was being engulfed in the Red Sea

Coleman, Wis.—By the death by lockjaw of Miss Emily Ermis, 18, John Ermis, her father, loses the eighteenth member of his immediate family. Charleston, W. Va—The mystery of the "Old Man of Kelly's Creek," who is alleged to have been one of the most successful bootleggers in the state, is believed by federal officers to have been solved by the arrest of Louis Peters 22 years old. It is alleged Peters disguised himself as an old man, wearing false hair and a patriarchal set of whiskers to sell his liquor. Otherwise he was a miner.

San Francisco, Cal.—While San Francisco asknowledges Atlanta, Georgia's claim that its women have the smallest and prettiest feet in the world, it asserts that the legs of San Francisco girls are the shapliest. Physical directors of the public schools say the graceful carriage and shapely forms of the San Francisco girls are due to the hilly streets of the coast city

Bethel, Pa—Miss Maria Kurr, one of Pennsylvania's most noted characters is dead of tuberculosis. For a quarter of a century she kept the Kurr house at Millersburg, which was famous as a place to eat and stop She was an expert at mixing drinks, a horsewoman, a hunter and could outplay the men at chess, cards, pool and checkers. She was six feet tall, strikingly handsome and refused steadfastly to marry.

Monroe City, Mo—Farmers of this community are spending their nights in the marshes catching frogs by which Albert Farquer hopes to be cured of a cancerous growth which threatens his life. The breast of a living frog is placed against the sore, and absorbs the poison. Farquer is recovering rapidly. The farmers hunt frogs with sacks and electric torches, which they flash into the eyes of the croakers and blind them.

Manufacturing

The factory is the farmer's workshop for he must pay the expenses of preparing his products for the market; meet the pay roll of the manufacturer; pay for the machinery and all other expenses. The loom, the forge, the slaughter pen and the gristmill have moved from the farm and concentrated in the city, where powerful machinery, skilled labor and organized markets prepare the products for consumption more economically and efficiently, but the farmer still pays the bill. The railroad trains have taken the place of the prairie schooner, affording cheap and rapid transit and making it possible to concentrate products and build up manufacturing centers.

The farmer is, therefore, interested in the manufacturer and his problems and in order to grasp the magnitude and importance of the industry to the agricultural interests a brief review of the business is essential.

Official estimates based on the returns of the federal census taken in 1910 show that there were 321,000 manufacturing establishments in the United States in 1914 employing approximately 11,000,000 persons at an annual pay roll expense of $5,546,000,000.

We have $24,181,000,000 invested in our manufacturing industries and the yearly production is valued at $26,550,000,000, a gross return on the investment of more than 100 per cent. Our farming capital is approximately $41,000,000,000 and the annual gross production, including live stock and crops, is $10,000,000,000, or a gross return on the investment of 25 per cent.

In 1820 approximately 10 per cent of the working population were engaged in manufacturing and 83 per cent were employed in agricultural pursuits. At the last federal census our gainful workers were distributed 28 per cent in manufacturing establishments and 33 per cent in agriculture.

The number of people employed in manufacture has increased from 349,000 in 1820 to about 11,000,000, an increase of 31-fold, while the number of farm workers has multiplied over six times this period.

There are 408,472 engines and motors in the factories of the United States with a combined horse power of 18,675,000.

Lumber and timber mills are our leading industry from the standpoint of persons employed. Foundry and machine shops rank second, and cotton mills third. In value of annual output slaughtering and meat packing come first, with foundry and machine shops second and lumber and timber third in wealth-creation or the value added to raw material by the manufacturing process the foundry and machine shops take first rank, with the lumber mills and printing and publishing industries second and third, respectively.

New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Massachusetts and Ohio are the five leading manufacturing states. In number of wage earners, value of output and value added by manufacture they rank in the order mentioned with the exception of Illinois, which is fourth in this respect, with Massachusetts third.

In capital investment foundry and machine shops are first, lumber mills second and steel mills third. These are the only industries in the nation that have a capital investment of more than a billion dollars.

LILLIAN LORRAINE

No, this is not an advertisement for a new hot-weather drink. It is Lillian Lorraine, of "Neal of the Navy" fame, celebrating the end of the filming of an episode by having a drink of soda. The new Pathe and Balboa star has "made good" in pictures.

WM. COURTLEIGH, JR., MISTAKEN FOR SAILOR.

The lucky chance which made William Courtleigh, Jr., who plays the lead in "Neal of the Navy", the Pathe and Balboa serial, turn his head, saved him from a forcible application of shoe leather administered by the captain of one of Uncle Sam's warships. Mr. Courtleigh was sitting on the starboard side of the quarterdeck of the battleship, which particular spot is sacred to the use of the captain and his invited guests. He had been working in a number of shipboard scenes, and feeling tired and hot made his way to a portion of the deck that seemed particularly attractive, and sat down to rest. He was arrayed in the costume of one of Uncle Sam's sailor boys, and so caught the eye of the captain who made a rush at him to give him a lesson in discipline. The captain's boot was poised in the air when young Courtleigh turned his head just in time. "Lucky for you, my boy," said the captain, his anger over, "the refreshments are on me!"

FITZMAURICE BECOMES A BOND ISSUE IN HIMSELF.

Geo. Fitzmaurice, the Pathe producer, wears a disgruntled look these days. He only had one scene in "Via Wireless" left to take and ran up against all sorts of trouble over it. "Fitz" wanted to blow up a yacht off the coast of Long Island, but ran afoul of the government. In the first place he had to give heavy bond that after he blew up the boat he would have her raised. Secondly he had to give bond to a tow boat concern and thirdly to a wrecking company. "Fitz" is so plastered with bonds that he dreams of them "They say there's no market for bonds these days," he remarks. "They're wrong!"

ARNOLD DALY

Arnold Daly, who is producing pictures for Pathe under the name of the "Arnold Daly Series", sprang a new one recently in his desire for realism. Mr. Daly wanted to get a ballroom scene with all the atmosphere of life in high society. Mrs. George Gould generously permitted the use of her palatial residence on Fifth Ave., New York. Upper Fifth Ave. opened its eyes to see a long line of carriages and automobiles discharging scores of men and women in evening dress at high noon before the Gould residence, and received by lines of powdered footmen in full livery. A number of persons well known in society consented to appear in the ballroom scene, and doubtless when "Ashton-Kirk, Investigator", the name of the picture, is shown upon the screens they will be easily recognized.

The Proof is Here the Same as Everywhere

For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief and the proof is here in Monessen the same as everywhere. Monessen people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous kidney ills—fatal Bright's disease. Here's Monessen proof. Investigate it.

Mrs. J. Feightner, 133 Oneida street, Monessen, says: "I suffered from severe pains in my left side and across my back. I often had headaches and dizzy spells and my appetite was poor. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Hirsch Drug Co., although I had but little faith in them. I am glad that I did, for they did me a world of good. I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney disorders."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Feightner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

STIRRING CAREER OF "WALLINGFORD" STAR

BURR McINTOSH, NOW PLAYING FILM ROLE, HAS LIVED ADVENTUROUS LIFE.

STAR ATHLETE AT COLLEGE

Journalist and Editor of Wide Repute, Famed Photographer and Noted Actor Among His Many Experiences.

Actor, author, photographer, publisher, lecturer, and coal mine magnate, here is a list of activities any one of which is sufficient to engage an ordinary man his whole life, but Burr McIntosh is no ordinary man. That's why he has been signed for the Wharton production of Pathe's "The New Adventures of J Rufus Wallingford." George Randolph Chester said Mr. McIntosh was the one man to play "Wallingford", and his advice has been followed

Mr. McIntosh was a classmate at Princeton University with the Hon. Job Hedges, Senator Pomerene of Ohio, Hon. John Harlan of Chicago, Wm. Steward Tod, the philanthropic millionaire; the late "Alec" Moffat, and others, and he is by no means the least famous of that famous group. Look at the height and width of him and you will readily believe that back in his college days he held the 100 yard intercollegiate championship and played on the varsity baseball and football teams.

BURR McINTOSH

On leaving college he went back to his home in Pittsburgh where his father was president of the largest bituminous coal mining company in the country. Our college athlete at once jumped into both business and politics forming the "Six Foot Republican Marching Club" of 150 men, each of whom was six feet or over in his stocking feet. Pittsburgh still speaks with pride of that remarkable organization.

Tiring of the coal business, Mr. McIntosh left to become a journalist in Philadelphia, and got a job at $10 a week on the "Philadelphia News." Within five weeks he had a full page expose of the most notorious thieves' resort in the city. The proprietor of the dive, James Kane, was starting for the "News" office with a gun in his pocket when he ran into McIntosh's brother "Andy" and killed him instead.

Having sufficiently proven his versatility in business and reporting, Mr. McIntosh went on the stage, making his debut in Bartley Campbell's play "Paquita" at the Fourteenth Street Theatre. Some of the parts which he made famous are "Colonel Moberley" in "Alabama", "Jo Vernon" in "In Mizzoura", "Joe", the cowboy in "The Cowboy and the Lady"; and other southern character parts. His best work, perhaps, was as "Pudd'nhead Wilson" as "Senator Langdon" in "The Gentleman from Mississippi", "Col. Watterson Blossom" in "Cordelia Blossom", and "Taffy" in "Trilby."

The Burr McIntosh Monthly is everywhere admitted to have been the most perfect pictorial publication of its time, and it was Mr. McIntosh's own product. As a photographer he won the Grand Prize (1000 francs) in the Paris Figaro contest of art and beauty with a portrait of Maude Fealy. In 1905 he was the official photographer of the Taft trip to the Philippines. He also secured some wonderful photographs in the Spanish-American war. His experience in these two trips he made into the lectures "With Secretary Taft in the Orient," and "The United States and Its Menaces", which he has given before hundreds of thousands of people.

Mr. McIntosh, as may be seen, has done many things and done them all well. It is safe to prophesy a splendid interpretation of "Wallingford" by him in this new Pathe series, especially as in the cast with him are the famous Max Figman and the charming Lolita Robertson.

Miss Robertson, herself, has experienced many exciting happenings, although they do not compare with those of her co-star.

AUCTION

MONESSEN PA. OLYMPIC HOME OF THE PIPE ORGAN

WEEK'S PROGRAM AT OLYMPIC THEATRE, MONDAY TO SATURDAY, OCT, 18 TO 24.

REGULAR PROGRAM

THURSDAY—The $50,000 Jewel Theft," in two reels, featuring Murdock McQuarrie and Edna Payne. My opinion is that MacQuarrie is one of the most wonderful dramatists ever in the moving picture world. There are few equal to him. "An Innocent Villian," a Joker comedy with Max Asher and Gale Henry, and the Broadway Universal feature "Under Southern Skies" in five reels, featuring Mary Fuller. This feature has set all exhibitors wild who were fortunate enought to get it in their program.

FRIDAY—Two of the finest comedies—"Eddie's Little Love Affair," a Nestor comedy with E. Lyons and one of L KO's comedies "A Mortgage on His Daughter" with Hank Mann and Peggy Pearce. Also one of Metro's features, the kind that crowds our doors all evening. B. A. Rolfe offers the two distinguished stars Jane Grey and Lionel Barrymore (the same star who is featured in "The Romance of Elaine") in "The Flaming Sword," in five acts and 210 scenes.

SATURDAY—"Queen of Jungle Land," in three reels of the kind that makes our audiences applaud wildly, featuring Edythe Sterling and Wellington Playter. Animated weekly. Pathe comedy with Heinie and Louie and the dearest and most friendly picture in our theatre. The 22nd episode of "The Diamond From the Sky" in two reels.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

THURSDAY—The Universal presents the beloved idol of the screen, Mary Fuller in that beautiful drama of love and romance in the ante-bellum days of the south, "Under Southern Skies," filmed in five wonderful acts. A brillian photo play, acted by a brilliant company in and around Savannah, Georgia. Replete with the charming atmosphere of the sunny South in the period of 1860. A play for everybody, sweet, wholesome, refreshing.

FRIDAY—Metro Pictures corporation presents the two distinguished stars, Jane Grey and Lionel Barrymore in "The Flaming Sword." The story: Steve, a young college chap who has been unfortunate in his business career, after a life of dissipation, concludes that life is not worth the living and contemplates suicide. Among his associates is a girl named Maisie with whom Steve's name has been coupled by his intimates. Steve gives a banquet and announces that he is a bankrupt and that his friends are looking upon him for the last time. After the affair Steve goes to his apartments, puts his affairs in order and slowly walks to the water front where he hires a small boat, and the last seen of him is his boat, sail set, leaving the inlet for the open sea. Maisie, realizing that Steve has intentions of injuring himself, attempts to follow, but is too late. Steve drifts out to sea and after days of misery is washed up on the beach of a small island where he is found by a girl named Meera who lives there with her father and several servants. Then the real picture starts at the acquaintance with Meera's father.

SATURDAY—"The Queen of Jungle Land" with Edythe Sterling, Wellington Playter and Rex de Rosselli. The work of the animals at Universal City Zoo, under capable direction, is proving that an animal picture can be something more than a faked jungle scene, caged animals and a plot in which the animals play both unwilling and unnecessary parts. To see Edythe Sterling stroking the head of a full grown leopard or making a pet of the biggest lion in the zoo, is a thrilling sight—one rarely found in the usual so-called pictures. Miss Sterling's work with animals is a new experience to her, but her fearlessness as shown in this strong picture leads to the belief that she has found a new outlet for her capable activities. This picture should go big with any audience because there is a plot with a punch, a good climax and the animal feature is a necessary part of the whole.
